

美麗華大、充實一夏 - 營建實務與創新 BIM 海外暑期營隊@華盛頓大學

Summer Program at the Department of Construction Management, University of Washington, USA

(From July 18, 2020 to August 7, 2020)

(I) Eligibility:

1. English proficiency: TOEFL iBT > 90 or equivalent
2. Sophomore, junior, and 1st year graduate students who already took the BIM course, either in traditional classroom or through e-learning (with proof).
Graduating seniors who have taken BIM courses and will be returning to NTU after the summer school for graduate studies are also eligible to apply.
3. GPA of the previous semester > 3.3

(II) Scholarship:

Sponsored by Mr. John SU: fee waived

- ✧ Including: accommodation, breakfast & lunch, tuition fee, field trips, airport pick-up with public transportation
- ✧ NOT included: flight tickets, dinner, cultural activities on weekends and during the nights (optional)

If applicants who have not been selected to be scholarship recipients, they can apply to the Program with self-funded fee of US 3,500$/person (approximately NT108,500$).

(III) Documents Required (written in English):

1. Full transcripts
2. Certificate of the English proficiency
3. Autobiography
4. If the BIM course was taken online, please submit the proof.
5. Statement of purpose

(IV) Admission Quota:

Scholarship students: 5 admitted + 3 wait-listed

Self-funded students: 13

(V) Selection Criteria:

1. Document reviewed by NTUCE review committee members: 50%
2. Interview (if needed): 50%

(VI) Important Dates:

Date	Event
Now till March 6 (Fri.)	Submission of documents required to CE209, NTUCE
March 9 (Mon.) to March 13 (Fri.)	NTUCE's document review & interview
March 16 (Mon.)	Announcement of scholarship results by NTUCE
March 18 (Wed.) by noon	Acceptance confirmed to NTUCE by admitted students
March 20 (Fri.) by noon	Chances for waitlisted students
March 23 (Mon.)	Nomination list sent by NTUCE to UW
March 27 (Fri.)	Submission of documents by all students to UW

(VII) NTUCE Coordinator

Ms. Huai-Yin (Whyin) CHEN 陳懷茵小姐

Phone: +886-2-3366-4297

Office: Room 209, Civil Engineering Department Building 土木館 209 室

Email: whyinchen@ntu.edu.tw