1. Aim: To accelerate the pace of internationalization, recruit international students and to encourage international degree students with excellent personal and academic conduct to achieve outstanding results, National Taiwan University (hereafter the University) formulates the following regulations.
2. Eligibility:
 - (1) Students applying for admission in accordance with the Ministry of Education's "Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan".
 - (2) Already enrolled students: when the GPA of the previous year is more than 3.2. If the student has been enrolled for less than a year, than the previous semester's score will be calculated.
3. Application Method:
 - (1) Freshmen: please apply to the Office of International Affairs at the same time when applying for admission.
 - (2) Already enrolled students: please apply to the Office of International Affairs according to the yearly announced time and regulations.
4. Evaluation Method: each college will review the materials submitted by the applicants and prioritize the grants.
5. Number of awardees:
 - (1) The actual number of awardees will be flexible adjusted based on the year's situation of various funds and revenues, as well as the number of international degree students.
 - (2) Quota allocation: each college allocates quotas for new students and already enrolled students in accordance with the received allocated quota of awardees in the given year.
6. Grant details:
 - (1) Subsidies for tuition and miscellaneous fees: this doesn't include administrative fees, thesis advisor's fees, insurance, accommodation, internet fees and other such fees, which grant recipients shall bear on their own. The upper limit of the subsidies for tuition and miscellaneous fees per semester is subsidized according to the fee standard of each college for undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students and can be up to TWD 130,000. The grant recipient shall bear the remaining amount.

¹ The English version is a translation of the official Chinese version. In case of any discrepancy or inconsistency between the English and Chinese version, the Chinese version shall prevail.

- (2) Stipend: TWD 6,000 per month for every recipient.
7. Duration of Grants:
- (1) Freshmen: doctoral students can receive the grant for up to three years, master students for up to two years, and undergraduate students for up to four years.
 - (2) Already enrolled students: one academic year from September to August of the following year.
8. Eligibility criteria for extension:
- (1) Undergraduate students: the average academic performance of freshmen students should be a GPA of 3.0 (inclusive) and above, the average academic performance of sophomores should be GPA 3.2 (inclusive) and above, and the average academic performance of junior students transitioning to senior year should be a GPA of 3.33 (inclusive) and above.
 - (2) Master students: the academic performance in the previous year should be a GPA of 3.5 (inclusive) and above.
 - (3) Doctoral students: each college defines its criteria for renewal and carries out the review.

The eligibility criteria for extension as laid out above apply to recipients starting from the academic year 2020/21. Grant recipients from the academic year 2019/20 or before are not subject to these extension restrictions.

9. Dissemination method: according to the yearly announcement of the Office of International Affairs.
10. If applicants apply for a deferral of their admission, their eligibility for the grant will be cancelled immediately.
11. If the grant recipient is suspended, leaves the University, or the respective college decides to terminate the grant before graduation, the grant will be dismissed immediately.
12. Grant recipients are not eligible to also receive other scholarships by the University or the R.O.C. government.
13. If there are any unresolved matters in these regulations, they shall be handled in accordance with the relevant regulations of the University or the Ministry of Education.
14. After approval by the Administrative Meeting, these regulations shall be implemented as of the date of promulgation.
