Art and Animation in Mechanics: Communicating Science and Engineering in the 21st Century

Communicating science and engineering solutions to real world problems is an essential part of our endeavors. Join four experts who will demonstrate the use of art in communicating societal grand challenges (Özge Samanci, Northwestern University), the value of illustrations and photography in disseminating discoveries (Felice Frankel, MIT), and the development of software to create animations and movies (Kalina Borkiewicz, University of Illinois and Eitan Grinpsun, University of Toronto).

Date and Time: Thursday, July 29, 2021 from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm PDT (11:00 am EDT / 10:00 am CDT / 9:00 am MDT)

Location: Online (Zoom / livestream)

The event is free; please register by July 26, 2021 Register here –
